Dutch courts render 11 decisions in relation to the CISG

- Two Dutch district courts follow established case law concerning inclusion of standard terms and conditions [in a November and December decision]
- A Dutch district court holds that EU law pre-empts the CISG [in relation to the applicability of a jurisdiction clause in the general terms and conditions]

Japanese court distinguishes between attorney fees for “pre-litigation” and “litigation” and finds that the former is recoverable under CISG Art. 74

U.S. court renders a decision distinguishing between the validity of a contract under the CISG and the New York Convention

Master thesis published on the application of the CISG in international commercial arbitration

HAPPY HOLIDAYS FROM IICL - PACE!